What our clients are saying

“ We are a small law firm located near Seattle, WA. Over the course of the last 12-15 months we have been developing a specialty in Unlawful Detainers.

Early on during that period, the business had grown but not as fast as we would have liked. Four or five months ago, we learned about Kick'em Out Quick and thought that we would try it out. We learned very quickly that Kick'em Out Quick works. We generate far more eviction work since signing up with Kick'em Out Quick.

Not only have we brought in a number of unlawful detainers through Kick'em Out Quick but Greg Gossett has been responsive to our many questions thus helping us do the marketing thing much better at our end.

If one is interested in developing and growing in this area of the law, we would definitely suggest that you kick start the process by using the Kick'em Out Quick brand.

What our clients are saying

“ I am a solo-practitioner who, for three years, primarily practiced criminal defense. The income was good, but it fluctuated a great deal. So I started dabbling in some family law cases, but it just wasn't for me. I then sought out some personal injury cases, but realized I didn't have the time and resources for the big cases. At that point, I came across the Kick'em Out Quick website. It talked about lawyers doing evictions for property owners and landlords. That type of law had never really crossed my mind although I had always been interested in real estate. Also, my now wife was a leasing agent for a major apartment complex. I asked her some questions about evictions and how apartment complexes process their evictions. Her answers only raised more curiosity, so I read up on the Landlord/Tenant Act of Oklahoma to gain some knowledge and insight on the laws and requirements. It seemed relatively straight forward, but had no clue how to get phone calls. This is where Kick'em Out Quick came into play.

Once I familiarized myself with the eviction process, I contacted Mr. Gossett regarding his website and company. He was quick to respond, very professional, and very confident in his service. For a nominal monthly fee, he attached my name and law firm information to his website, created a Face book page, and handles all of the SEO/Google search mumbo jumbo that I don't have time for. Within weeks, I started getting phone calls. Most of the initial calls were from owners of a single property looking to evict a lone non-paying tenant, but it was pretty cool getting some new and different clientele. And, it wasn't making me rich, but it was definitely bringing in some extra money.

As I stuck with it and learned the caveats of the Landlord/Tenant statutes, I started getting bigger, better, and more clients. To date, it has been one year since I started with Kick'em Out Quick. I now represent three major property management companies, many smaller property management companies, and continuously represent mom and pop landlords with their evictions. In addition, many of these clients are in need of lease drafting, review, and revision; many of them need assistance with purchase agreements, deeds, real estate auctions, and foreclosures.
